Live the Dream is an education and support group for those who, originally inspired by the writings of Robert A. Heinlein, Robert Rimmer, Marion Zimmer Bradley, and Spider Robinson are now ready to LIVE such alternative lifestyles as cooperative living, open committed relationships, and group marriage. Many of our concepts on multiply committed relationships come from Heinlein's Stranger in a Strange Land and The Moon is a Harsh Mistress. Live the Dream is the oldest continuing Nest of Church of All Worlds founded 1962. This first legally recognized Neo Pagan religion in the US was inspired by Stranger in a Strange Land.

Heinlein and the Professionals of Early LA Science Fiction

Room Palos Verdes (Hilton) at 12:00 PM PDT on Thursday, August 27, 2026

Glen Olson, Terry Brussel-Roger's co-author of Fifty Years of Polyamory in America: A Guided Tour of a Growing Movement, moderates this panel, which includes Terry Brussel-Rogers.

Los Angeles in the 1930s and 1940s wasn't just a hub of fandom, it was a magnet for prominent SF professionals whose work helped define the Golden Age. This program focuses on Robert A. Heinlein, whose move to LA immersed him in local fandom and war-era research culture, and the meetings of his Mañana Literary Society. It will also highlight the editors, illustrators, and pulp authors who made SoCal a pressure point for modern SF. Questions and comments on Heinlein's later books on polyamory are welcome.

Heinlein wrote For Us The Living in 1938, though it wasn't published until 2003. It had plenty of poly oriented material in it long before the word was coined. It also contains fascinating bits which later became full novels prominently portraying the concept of multiply committed relationships, group marriage and group living.

Is Fandom Really Egalitarian?

Room 263A (ACC North) at 10:30 AM PDT on Monday, August 31, 2026

Terry Brussel-Rogers is moderating.

Egalitarianism is an ideal fandom aspires to, where fan spaces are open to everyone and everyone is an equal. Yet, we all know fandom often misses that mark. Panelists will discuss the unequal realities within fandom, and steps we can all take to make these spaces into more equal and welcoming places.

Saturday Open Filk

Room San Simeon A (Hilton) starting at 9:00 PM PDT on Saturday, August 29, 2026

Filk music started out with people getting together in a circle in some random place at a convention to swap songs. We're official now and in a larger space, but it's still the same supportive tradition of sharing music together late into the night. All voices, instruments, and styles including a cappella are welcome! Come by to sing or to listen! Poly-oriented songs and music are welcome!

Mabon-Celebrating the Autumn Equinox (September 22, 2026)

Looking for Your Tribe? Here We Are!

Were you inspired by the multi-generational Line Marriage from The Moon Is a Harsh Mistress, warmed by the Nest in Stranger in a Strange Land, fascinated by the group marriage and other relationship possibilities presented in Time Enough for Love through To Sail Beyond the Sunset? Robert Heinlein, Spider Robinson, Anne McCaffrey, Marion Zimmer Bradley, and many other SF and Fantasy authors have all written books with polyamory material in them.

We'll share how these stories have affected the lives of their readers as well as our own experiences in real triads, open committed relationships group marriages, group houses, etc. We'll also answer your questions and help you figure out which of these alternatives may help you live your dream!

Dreams can come true...

Terry Brussel-Rogers wrote Fifty Years of Polyamory in America: A Guided Tour of a Growing Movement with Glen W. Olson, her best friend since high school and now a published Science Fiction writer.

She founded Live the Dream in 1987, the oldest continuing Nest of the real life Church of All Worlds founded in 1962 by Oberon Zell (who is giving our July 19, 2026 meeting) inspired by the fictional one in Heinlein's Stranger in Strange Land.

Her husband Craig has helped facilitate Live the Dream since moving in with her in August of 2017.

Eaine Anderson and Jim Sloan are also part of their Nest/Intimate network who will join them in person for this event. Other members of their Nest will join them on Zoom and in person. All will be happy to answer your questions about Polyamory as a lifestyle and their own experiences with it.

Saturday, October 17, 2026: Live 11 am-4 pm PT Zoom 11 am-1 pm PT
Poly Dating Etiquette

11 am to 1 pm PT: Poly discussion, live and on Zoom.

1 pm: Potluck Lunch – bring something healthy and delicious to share.

2:00-3:45 pm: Socialize in clothing-optional shaded jacuzzi and exercises for developing intimacy-- empathic communication to enhance your love life and friendships.

4:00-5:45 pm: Socialize in clothing-optional shaded Jacuzzi or watch a poly movie.

6 pm: Potluck dinner – bring something healthy and delicious to share.

7 pm: Samhain Ritual led by High Priestess Lilith.

8-11 pm: All Hallows' Eve Celebration. If you want to present anything perhaps relating to the costume (or body paint) you choose to wear, do let us know.

What do you do when your new serious relationship invites her lover of 15 years to dinner on the same night you are coming over —“because it’s his usual night to see me and you two really need to get to know each other”?

Should you treat it like meeting her best friend or big brother? Get his approval? Be offended and break things off with her? Or show your savoir-faire and inquire where she would like you to sleep (perchance to Love)—with them or elsewhere?

The answer is, of course, for the lady (or a gentleman in similar circumstances) to make her poly preferences very clear on the first date or even before it so that this invitation is not a surprise. The details are best discussed and agreed upon in advance for the comfort of all concerned.

Other questions such as how to handle holiday, etc. gatherings of each of your families when you are in a triad, what to tell grown children if you are new to polyamory, whether you will date separately or together as a married couple, and much more will also be open for discussion at this meeting. Miss Manners did not discuss this, but we will!

Fifty Years of Polyamory in America: A Guided Tour of a Growing Movement, by Glen W. Olson and Terry Lee Brussel-Rogers, published by Rowman and Littlefield on November 11, 2022, is the first definitive history of polyamory in America ever published. It is a fascinating read. The publishers are continuing to put this book in more and more universities and libraries! Students are using material from it in Masters theses and Doctoral dissertations on Polyamory.

Fifty Years of Polyamory in America: A Guided Tour to a Growing Movement is unique among the many books about polyamory because the scope of this book is the entire history of the polyamory movement, from Woodstock right on into the 21st century. The book is available at on Amazon, Barnes and Noble, and many other places—even internationally!-- just by Googling its title.

Between them, Terry and Glen have experience with open marriage, group marriage, and group living, and both are part of an intimate network which has evolved from 1969 to present time.

WHAT EXPERIENCES/BOOK REVIEWS, ETC. CAN YOU SHARE RELATING TO THE POLY LIFE STYLE?

We'd like to run it here or have you bring those questions to one of our 3rd Saturday events.

Please email to: Terry_bg@msn.com

Or mail it to: 8515 Penfield Ave. Winnetka, CA 91306.

We will take any question with your solution or brain storm and give it one or more of our own.

Let's have fun with this and learn from each other.
